

C-Clear the Maker of Anti-Fog, Anti-Static Lens Cleaners Launches New Website

March 14, 2010

For Immediate Release - Las Vegas, Nevada 3/14/2010

C-Clear launched a brand new eCommerce website this month. The site, www.c-clearantifog.com has an updated design and will accommodate C-Clear's Anti-fog and Anti-static product growth (product line expansion) now and into the future.

C-Clear President Terry Colbert says: "At C-Clear we have always taken customer care very seriously. We are constantly talking and listening to our customers. Over the last year we have conducted a series of informal research programs and the results have influenced the new website design, content, and expanded product line."

The new website is user-friendly and secured by a 256 bit SSL certificate and Authorize.net. It gives our customers detailed information, close-up photographs of all its quality products and sizes.

"Our customers want to be able to choose on-line, to see the products and find out who we are and how we work," says Terry Colbert. "We are a successful, growing and strongly reliable company with a 100% Money Back Guarantee policy. All of our products are proudly Made in the USA! Even the plastic bottles, spray tops and gel cups are Made in the USA"

Terry Colbert added: "We are in a competitive market. Customers rightly expect a good deal, professional service and a quality product. At C-Clear we know that our products are not only the very best available but also that we listen to our customers. As a result, we will continue to refine our products and services to meet our client's needs now and in the future."
